■ Areas of Practice

Mr. Benz specialized in M&A (including corporate reorganisations), private equity transactions and bank financing transactions, the latter with a particular focus on syndicated loans and project finance.

He frequently advised borrowers and lenders on structured finance transactions and loan facilities for general corporate purposes and private acquisitions.

He has devoted a substantial amount of time to advising banks and corporate clients on contract and corporate law matters including mergers, reorganisations and restructurings.

He now concentrates on advising a number of key account clients on all aspects of company and contract law.
